	x		DECLARATION OF JEREMY A. LIEBERMAN FILED ON BEHALF OF POMERANTZ LLP IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES AND EXPENSES

I, Jeremy A. Lieberman, declare as follows:

1. I am a member of the firm of Pomerantz LLP ("Pomerantz"). I am submitting this declaration in support of my firm's application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses/charges ("expenses") in connection with services rendered in the above-entitled action.

2. This firm worked as additional counsel for plaintiffs.

3. The information in this declaration regarding the firm's time and expenses is taken from time and expense printouts and supporting documentation prepared and/or maintained by the firm in the ordinary course of business. I am the partner who oversaw and/or conducted the day-to-day activities in the litigation and I reviewed these printouts (and backup documentation where necessary or appropriate) in connection with the preparation of this declaration. The purpose of this review was to confirm both the accuracy of the entries on the printouts as well as the necessity for, and reasonableness of, the time and expenses committed to the litigation. I believe that the time reflected in the firm's lodestar calculation and the expenses for which payment is sought as set forth in this declaration are reasonable in amount and were necessary for the effective and efficient prosecution and resolution of the litigation. In addition, I believe that the expenses are all of a type that would normally be charged to a fee-paying client in the private legal marketplace.

4. The number of hours spent on this litigation by my firm is 353.7. A breakdown of the lodestar is provided in Exhibit A. The lodestar amount for attorney time based on the firm's current rates is $198,119.00. The hourly rates shown in Exhibit A are the usual and customary rates set by the firm for each individual.

5. My firm seeks an award of $1587.01 in expenses and charges in connection with the prosecution of the litigation. Those expenses and charges are summarized by category in Exhibit B.

6. The following is additional information regarding certain of these expenses:

(a) Filing, Witness and Other Fees: $454.00. These expenses have been paid to the court for filing fees and to attorney service firms or individuals who served process of the complaint or subpoenas. The vendors who were paid for these services are set forth in Exhibit C.

(b) Class Action Notices/Business Wire: $875.00. This expense was necessary under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995's "early notice" requirements, which provides, among other things, that "[n]ot later than 20 days after the date on which the complaint is filed, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall cause to be published, in a widely circulated national business-oriented publication or wire service, a notice advising members of the purported plaintiff class – (I) of the pendency of the action, the claims asserted therein, and the purported class period; and (II) that, not later than 60 days after the date on which the notice is published, any member of the purported class may move the court to serve as lead plaintiff of the purported class." See 15 U.S.C. §78u-4(a)(3)(A)(i).

(c) Online Legal and Financial Research: $155.79. These included vendors such as Pacer, Westlaw, Lexis Nexis. These databases were used to obtain access to: SEC filings, factual databases, legal research and for cite-checking of briefs. This expense represents the expense incurred by Pomerantz for use of these services in connection with this litigation. The charges for these vendors vary depending upon the type of services requested.

(d) Postage and overnight courier: $102.22.

7. The expenses pertaining to this case are reflected in the books and records of this firm. These books and records are prepared from receipts, expense vouchers, check records and other documents and are an accurate record of the expenses.

8. The identification and background of my firm and its partners is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this day of October, 2015, at New York, New York.

EXHIBIT D

POMERANTZ LLP

Pomerantz LLP is one of the nation's foremost specialists in corporate, securities, antitrust and ERISA class litigation. The Firm was founded in 1936 by the late Abraham L. Pomerantz, one of the "pioneers who developed the class action/derivative action field."¹ Mr. Pomerantz rose to national prominence as a "champion of the small investor" and a "battler against corporate skullduggery."² Today, led by Managing Partner Marc I. Gross, the Firm maintains the commitments to excellence and integrity passed down by Mr. Pomerantz. Mr. Gross has over thirty-five years' experience litigating securities fraud and derivative actions and is a Vice President of the Institute of Law and Economic Policy.

For nearly 80 years, the Firm has consistently shaped the law, winning landmark decisions that have expanded and protected investor rights, and initiated historic corporate governance reforms. Securities Law 360, in its 2015 Glass Ceiling Report, ranked Pomerantz as #1 in Top Plaintiffs' Class Action Law Firms for Women Attorneys. In 2012 and 2013, Benchmark Litigation highlighted Pomerantz as a "Recommended" plaintiffs' firm; it named Marc I. Gross as a "Local Litigation Star" in New York, and Patrick V. Dahlstrom as a "Local Litigation Star" in Chicago. The National Law Journal named Pomerantz to its prestigious 2013 Plaintiffs' Hot List. In 2014, Marc I. Gross was voted by his peers to be a New York Metro Super Lawyer, while Jeremy A. Lieberman, Michael J. Wernke and Tamar A. Weinrib were voted New York Metro Rising Stars.

SECURITIES LITIGATION

SIGNIFICANT LANDMARKS IN SECURITIES-RELATED LITIGATIONS

In March 2015, Pomerantz was selected as sole lead counsel, representing lead plaintiff Universities Superannuation Scheme, Ltd. ("USS"), in a historic securities class action against Petroleo Brasileiro SA ("Petrobras"). In July 2015, New York U.S. District Judge Jed S. Rakoff denied in most part Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Lead Plaintiff's Complaint. The class action against Petrobras, brought on behalf of all purchasers of common and preferred American Depositary Shares ("ADSs") on the New York Stock Exchange, as well as purchasers of certain Petrobras debt, principally alleges that Petrobras and its senior executives engaged in a multi-year, multi-billion dollar money-laundering and bribery scheme, which was, of course, concealed from investors.

USS, chosen over three other strong candidates for lead plaintiff, was not the lead plaintiff applicant with the largest losses from the fraud. However, as Pomerantz articulated during the lead plaintiff process, USS's conduct represented the "gold standard" for institutional oversight of proposed lead counsel. Judge Rakoff set a trial date of February 6, 2016.

In 2013 and 2014, Pomerantz secured a series of significant victories in individual actions pursued on behalf of institutional investors in In re BP p.l.c. Securities Litigation, MDL 2185 pending in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. Pomerantz defeated BP's forum non conveniens arguments seeking dismissal of U.S. institutions and, later, foreign institutions, pursuing English common law claims seeking recovery of investment losses stemming from the 2010 Gulf oil spill in both NYSE-traded American Depository Shares and London Stock Exchange (LSE)-traded common stock. Pomerantz also defeated BP's attempt to extend the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act to dismiss these claims. Thanks to these rulings, Pomerantz is now leading the only litigation following the Supreme Court's decision in Morrison v. Nat'l Australia Bank, which foreclosed use of U.S. federal securities laws to recover for losses in foreign-traded stocks, where U.S. and foreign investors, pursuing foreign claims, seeking recovery for losses in foreign-traded stocks are doing so in a U.S. court. (See fuller discussion below, in "At the Vanguard, Post-Morrison.")

In June 2010, the court granted final approval of a $225 million settlement proposed by Pomerantz and Lead Plaintiff the Menora Group, with Comverse Technology and certain of Comverse's former officers and directors, after four years of highly contested litigation. The Comverse settlement is one of the largest securities class action settlements reached since the passage of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act ("PSLRA").³ It is the second-largest recovery in a securities litigation involving the backdating of options, as well as one of the largest recoveries – $60 million – from an individual officer-defendant, Comverse's founder and former CEO, Kobi Alexander. In re Comverse Technology, Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 06-CV-1825 (E.D.N.Y.)

Even before the enactment of the PSLRA, Pomerantz represented state agencies in securities class actions, including the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (recovered $100 million) against a major investment bank. In re Salomon Brothers Treasury Litig. (S.D.N.Y.).

Pomerantz recovered $50 million for the Treasurer of the State of New Jersey and several New Jersey pension funds in an individual action. This was a substantially higher recovery than what our clients would have obtained had they remained in a related federal class action. Treasurer of the State of New Jersey v. AOL Time Warner, Inc. (N.J. Super. Ct. Law Div., Mercer Co.).

Pomerantz has litigated numerous cases for the Louisiana School Employees' Retirement System. For example, as Lead Counsel, Pomerantz recovered $74.75 million in a securities fraud class action against Citigroup, its CEO Sanford Weil, and its now infamous telecommunications analyst Jack Grubman. In re Salomon Analysts AT&T Litig., (S.D.N.Y.) Also, the Firm played a major role in a complex antitrust and securities class action which settled for over $1 billion. In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litig., (S.D.N.Y.). Pomerantz was a member of the Executive Committee in In re Transkaryotic Sec. Litig., (D. Mass), and in that role helped to win a $50 million settlement for the class.

In 2008, together with Co-Counsel, Pomerantz identified a substantial opportunity for recovery of losses in Countrywide mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") for three large New Mexico funds (New Mexico State Investment Council, New Mexico Public Employees' Retirement Association, and New Mexico Educational Retirement Board), that had been overlooked by all of the firms then in their securities litigation pool. We then filed the first non-class lawsuit by a public institution with respect to Countrywide MBS. See New Mexico State Inv Council v. Countrywide Fin. Corp., et al., No. D-0101-CV-2008-02289 (N.M. 1st Dist. Ct.). In Fall 2010, we negotiated for our clients an extremely favorable but confidential settlement.

Pomerantz has also obtained stellar results for private institutions and Taft-Hartley funds. Below are a few examples:

- In re Charter Communications, Inc. Secs. Litig. (W.D. Mo.) (sole Lead Counsel for Lead Plaintiff StoneRidge Investment Partners LLC); $146.25 million class settlement, where Charter also agreed to enact substantive improvements in corporate governance.
- In re American Italian Pasta Securities Litigation (W.D. Mo.) (sole Lead Counsel for Lead Plaintiff Ironworkers Locals 40, 361 and 417; $28.5 million aggregate settlements).
- Richardson and CC Partners, LLC v. Gray (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Cty.); and In re Summit Metals, (Bankr. D. Del.) (two derivative actions where the Firm represented C.C. Partners Ltd. and obtained judgment of contempt against controlling shareholder for having made “extraordinary” payments to himself in violation of a preliminary injunction; persuaded the court to jail him for two years upon his refusal to pay; and, in a related action, won a $43 million judgment after trial and obtained turnover of stock of two companies).

Over its long history, Pomerantz has served as Lead or Co-Lead Counsel in numerous other cases, a few of which are listed below:

- In re Medicis Pharmaceutical Corp. Securities Litigation (U.S.D.C. Ariz. 2010)
$18 million settlement in class action securities fraud litigation.
- In re Sealed Air Corp. Sec. Litig. (D.N.J. 2010)
$20 million settlement in class action in which Pomerantz was Co-Lead Counsel representing the Louisiana Municipal Police Employees’ Retirement System.
- In re Elan Corp. Sec. Litig. (S.D.N.Y. 2005)
$75 million settlement in class action arising out of alleged accounting manipulations.
- In re Livent, Inc. Noteholders Sec. Litig. (S.D.N.Y. 2005)
$17 million settlement for the class; plus summary judgment against remaining defendants for $36 million (including pre-judgment interest); totaling over 100% of claimed damages.
- In re Safety-Kleen Corp. Stockholders Litig. (D. S.C. 2004)
$54.5 million in total settlements in class action alleging accounting manipulations by corporate officials and auditors; last settlement reached on eve of trial.
- Mardean Duckworth v. Country Life Insurance Co. (Ill. Cir. Ct., Cook Cty. 2000)
$45 million recovery.
- In re First Executive Corp. Sec. Litig. (C.D. Cal. 1994)
$102 million recovery for the class, exposing a massive securities fraud arising out of the Michael Milken debacle.
- Snyder v. Nationwide Insurance Co. (Sup. Ct., Onondaga Cty. 1998)
Settlement valued at $100 million in derivative case arising from injuries to consumers purchasing life insurance policies.
- In re Boardwalk Marketplace Sec. Litig. (D. Conn. 1994)
Over $66 million benefit in securities fraud action.

- In re National Health Lab., Inc. Sec. Litig. (S.D. Cal. 1995)
$64 million recovery.
- In re Telerate, Inc. Shareholders Litig. (Del. Ch. 1989)
$95 million benefit in case alleging violation of fiduciary duty under state law.
- In re Force Protection, Inc. (D.S.C.)
$24 million settlement.

SHAPING THE LAW

Not only has Pomerantz established a long track record of obtaining substantial monetary recoveries for our clients; whenever appropriate, we also pursue corporate governance reforms on their behalf. In In re Chesapeake S'holder Deriv. Litig., No. CJ-2009-3983 (Dist. Okla.), for example, the Firm served as co-lead counsel, representing a public pension client in a derivative case arising from an excessive compensation package granted to Chesapeake's CEO and founder. This was a derivative action, not a class action. Yet it is illustrative of the results that can be obtained by an institutional investor in the corporate governance arena. There, we obtained a settlement which called for the repayment of $12.1 million and other consideration by the CEO. The Wall Street Journal (November 3, 2011) characterized the settlement as "a rare concession for the 52-year old executive, who has run the company largely by his own rules since he co-founded it in 1989." The settlement also included comprehensive corporate governance reforms.

The Firm has won many landmark decisions that have enhanced shareholders' rights and improved corporate governance. These include decisions that established that:

- shareholders have a right to a jury trial in derivative actions. Ross v. Bernhard, 396 U.S. 531 (1970).
- a mortgage-backed securities ("MBS") holder may bring claims if the MBS price declines even if all payments of principal and interest have been made. See New Mexico State Inv Council v. Countrywide Fin. Corp., et al., No. D-0101-CV-2008-02289, Transcript of Proceedings on March 25, 2009 (N.M. 1st Dist. Ct.)
- when a court selects a Lead Plaintiff under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act ("PSLRA"), the standard for calculating the "largest financial interest" must take into account sales as well as purchases. In re Comverse Technology Inc. Sec. Litig., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 14878 (E.D.N.Y. 2007).
- purchasers of options have standing to sue under federal securities laws. In re Green Tree Fin. Corp. Options Litig., 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 13986 (D. Minn. 2002).
- a company may have the obligation to disclose to shareholders its Board's consideration of important corporate transactions, such as the possibility of a spin-off, even before any final decision has been made. Kronfeld v. Trans World Airlines, Inc., 832 F.2d 726 (2d Cir. 1987).
- specific standards for assessing whether mutual fund advisors breach fiduciary duties by charging excessive fees. Gartenberg v. Merrill Lynch Asset Mgmt., Inc., 740 F.2d 190 (2d Cir. 1984).
- investment advisors to mutual funds are fiduciaries who cannot sell their trustee positions for a profit. Rosenfeld v. Black, 445 F.2d 1337 (2d Cir. 1971).
- management directors of mutual funds have a duty to make full disclosure to outside directors "in every area where there was even a possible conflict of interest." Moses v. Burgin, 445 F.2d 369 (1st Cir. 1971).

- a managing underwriter can owe fiduciary duties of loyalty and care to an issuer in connection with a public offering of the issuer stock, even in the absence of any contractual agreement. Professor John C. Coffee, a renowned Columbia University securities law professor, commenting on the ruling, stated: “It’s going to change the practice of all underwriting.” EBC I, Inc. v. Goldman Sachs & Co., 5 N.Y. 3d 11 (2005).

AT THE VANGUARD, POST MORRISON

The April 20, 2010 Deepwater Horizon rig explosion and the resulting oil spill – the worst in U.S. history – devastated countless lives and caused immeasurable environmental damage in the Gulf of Mexico and along its coastlines. The spill also impacted investors in BP p.l.c. (“BP”). Within weeks, the price of BP’s ordinary shares and its American Depository Shares (ADS) plummeted nearly 50%, driven down by revelations regarding BP’s prior misstatements about its commitment to safety and the true scope of the spill.

Although many BP investors immediately considered their legal options, the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in Morrison v. Nat’l Australia Bank Ltd., 130 S. Ct. 2869 (2010) presented a seeming insurmountable hurdle, in that it barred use of the U.S. federal securities laws to recover losses from investments in foreign-traded securities. Thus, although the U.S. federal securities laws protected purchasers of BP’s ADS, which trade on the New York Stock Exchange, the same was not true for the purchasers of BP’s ordinary shares, which trade on the London Stock Exchange. For investors who purchased BP common stock, they seemed to have no legal options in the U.S. court system.

With a long tradition of developing innovative ways to advance client interests, Pomerantz responded by developing a new legal theory, placing it once again at the vanguard of ground-breaking litigation. On behalf of its clients, Pomerantz is pursuing common law fraud and negligence claims against BP, in the U.S. courts, to recover losses associated with its clients’ BP common stock investments. For investors who also purchased BP’s ADS, Pomerantz is simultaneously pursuing U.S. federal securities claims – in the same lawsuit.

Through a series of hard-fought victories, Pomerantz has secured the right of both U.S. and foreign institutional investors to pursue these claims in U.S. federal court. First, in a landmark decision issued in October 2013 (as revised in December 2013), the Honorable Keith Ellison of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas denied BP’s motion to dismiss Pomerantz’s complaint on behalf of three U.S. pension funds. Judge Ellison rejected BP’s argument that the case should be sent to courts in England under the doctrine of forum non conveniens, and his decision to apply English law mooted BP’s arguments that the case should be dismissed under Morrison or the Dormant Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution as improper regulation of foreign commerce.

More recently, in decisions issued in October 2014, Judge Ellison denied BP’s attempt to dismiss the cases of Pomerantz’s foreign institutional clients on forum non conveniens grounds. He also rejected BP’s attempt to extend the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act (SLUSA) to the English common law claims being pursued by Pomerantz’s clients, and by extension, rejected BP’s argument that SLUSA required the dismissal of our foreign and U.S. non-public institutional clients.

These decisions secured the right of Pomerantz's clients, both foreign and domestic, to pursue English common law claims – in U.S. federal court – to recover their losses in BP's London-traded common shares and its New York-traded ADS. This litigation is literally the first time, post-Morrison, that institutional investors have been permitted to pursue foreign claims seeking recovery for foreign traded securities in a U.S. court.

Also in October 2014, Pomerantz secured important rulings regarding the Exchange Act claims being pursued by certain of our clients regarding their ADS losses. Judge Ellison agreed with Pomerantz that American Pipe tolling applied to both the statute of limitation and the statute of repose applicable to our Section 10(b) claims. This ruling was significant given the split of authority nationwide and the Supreme Court's expression of interest in the repose issue (which was to have been heard in the IndyMac appeal).

These outcomes represent hard-fought, important victories for Pomerantz's clients. In total, Pomerantz currently represents nearly three dozen clients in BP-related litigation, including U.S. public pension funds, U.S. limited partnerships and ERISA trusts, and institutional investors from the U.K., France, the Netherlands, Canada, and Australia.

Pomerantz's BP litigation is overseen by Partners Marc I. Gross, Jeremy A. Lieberman, and Matthew L. Tuccillo.

COMMENTS FROM THE COURTS

Throughout its history, courts time and again have acknowledged the Firm's ability to vigorously pursue and successfully litigate actions on behalf of investors.

At the May 2015 hearing wherein the Court approved the settlement in Courtney, et al. v. Avid Technology, et al., No. 1:13-cv-10686-WGY (D. Mass.) following oral argument by Jeremy A. Lieberman, the Hon. William G. Young stated,

This has been very well litigated. It is always a privilege. I don't just say that as a matter of form. And I thank you for the vigorous litigation that I've been permitted to be a part of. (Tr. at 8-9)

At the January 2012 hearing wherein the Court approved the settlement in In re Chesapeake Shareholder Derivative Litig. No. CJ-2009-3983 (Okla. Dist.), following oral argument by Marc I. Gross, the Hon. Daniel L. Owens stated,

Counsel, it's a pleasure, and I mean this and rarely say it. I think I've said it two times in 25 years. It is an extreme pleasure to deal with counsel of such caliber. (Tr. at 48)

In approving the $225 million settlement in In re Comverse Technology Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 06-CV-1825 (E.D.N.Y.) in June 2010, Judge Nicholas G. Garaufis stated:

As outlined above, the recovery in this case is one of the highest ever achieved in this type of securities action. . . . The court also notes that, throughout this litigation, it has been impressed by Lead Counsel's acumen and diligence. The briefing has been thorough, clear, and convincing, and . . . Lead Counsel has not taken short cuts or relaxed its efforts at any stage of the litigation.

In approving a $146.25 million settlement in In re Charter Communications Sec. Litig., 02 Cv1186 (E.D. Mo. 2005), in which Pomerantz served as sole Lead Counsel, Judge Charles A. Shaw praised the Firm's efforts:

This Court believes Lead Plaintiff achieved an excellent result in a complex action, where the risk of obtaining a significantly smaller recovery, if any, was substantial. In awarding fees to Pomerantz, the Court cited "the vigor with which Lead Counsel . . . investigated claims, briefed the motions to dismiss, and negotiated the settlement."

In approving a $24 million settlement in In re Force Protection, Inc. 08 CV 845 (D.S.C. 2011), Judge C. Weston Houk described the Firm as "attorneys of great ability and great reputation" and commended the Firm for having "done an excellent job."

In certifying a class in a securities fraud action against analysts in DeMarco v. Robertson Stephens, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS (S.D.N.Y.), Judge Gerard D. Lynch stated that Pomerantz had "ably and zealously represented the interests of the class."

Numerous courts have made similar comments:

- Appointing Pomerantz Lead Counsel in American Italian Pasta Co. Sec. Litig., No 05-CV-0725-W-ODS (W.D. Mo.), a class action that involved a massive fraud and restatements spanning several years, the District Court observed that the Firm ". . . has significant experience (and has been extremely effective) litigating securities class actions, employs highly qualified attorneys, and possesses ample resources to effectively manage the class litigation and protect the class's interests."
- In approving the settlement in In re Wiring Devices Antitrust Litigation, MDL Docket No. 331 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 9, 1980), Chief Judge Jack B. Weinstein stated that "Counsel for the plaintiffs I think did an excellent job. . . . They are outstanding and skillful. The litigation was and is extremely complex. They assumed a great deal of responsibility. They recovered a very large amount given the possibility of no recovery here which was in my opinion substantial."
- In Snyder v. Nationwide Insurance Co., Index No. 97/0633, (N.Y. Supreme Court, Onondaga County), a case where Pomerantz served as Co-Lead Counsel, Judge Tormey stated, "It was a pleasure to work with you. This is a good result. You've got some great attorneys working on it."
- In Steinberg v. Nationwide Mutual Insurance Co., 99 CV 7725 (E.D.N.Y.), Judge Spatt, granting class certification and appointing the Firm as class counsel, observed: "The Pomerantz firm has a strong reputation as class counsel and has demonstrated its competence to serve as class counsel in this motion for class certification." (2004 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17669 at *24)
- In Mercury Savings and Loan, CV 90-87 LHM (C.D. Cal.), Judge McLaughlin commended the Firm for the "absolutely extraordinary job in this litigation."

- In Boardwalk Marketplace Securities Litigation, MDL No. 712 (D. Conn.), Judge Eginton described the Firm's services as "exemplary," praised it for its "usual fine job of lawyering . . . [in] an extremely complex matter," and concluded that the case was "very well-handled and managed." (Tr. at 6, 5/20/92; Tr. at 10, 10/10/92)
- In Nodar v. Weksel, 84 Civ. 3870 (S.D.N.Y.), Judge Broderick acknowledged "that the services rendered [by Pomerantz] were excellent services from the point of view of the class represented, [and] the result was an excellent result." (Tr. at 21-22, 12/27/90)
- In Klein v. A.G. Becker Paribas, Inc., 83 Civ. 6456 (S.D.N.Y.), Judge Goettel complimented the Firm for providing "excellent . . . absolutely top-drawer representation for the class, particularly in light of the vigorous defense offered by the defense firm." (Tr. at 22, 3/6/87)
- In Digital Sec. Litig., 83-3255Y (D. Mass.), Judge Young lauded the Firm for its "[v]ery fine lawyering." (Tr. at 13, 9/18/86)
- In Shelter Realty Corp. v. Allied Maintenance Corp., 75 F.R.D. 34, 40 (S.D.N.Y.), Judge Frankel, referring to Pomerantz, said: "Their experience in handling class actions of this nature is known to the court and certainly puts to rest any doubt that the absent class members will receive the quality of representation to which they are entitled."
- In Rauch v. Bilzerian, 88 Civ. 15624 (Sup. Ct. N.J.), the court, after trial, referred to Pomerantz partners as "exceptionally competent counsel," and as having provided "top drawer, topflight [representation], certainly as good as I've seen in my stay on this court."

ANTITRUST LITIGATION

Pomerantz has earned a national reputation for its expertise in antitrust litigation, serving in a leadership role in numerous complex and high profile antitrust class actions, including in In re Methionine Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Cal. 2002) ($107 million recovery) and In re Sorbates Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Cal. 2000) (over $82 million recovery). We played a prominent role in In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, MDL 1023 (S.D.N.Y.), which resulted in a settlement in excess of $1 billion for class members.

In granting the fee request in In re Salomon Brothers Treasury Litigation, 91 Civ. 5471 (RPP) (S.D.N.Y.), where the firm successfully negotiated a $100 million settlement for the class in a complex antitrust and securities case, Judge Patterson stated:

I am going to approve the settlement, and I am going to approve the attorneys' fees that you have requested with cost.

As I am doing it so summarily, does not mean I have not considered it at length. But it does not need that much consideration because I've observed the conduct of the attorneys involved here. They get the work done, and it was a tough one.

I think that there were a lot of people who thought there was going to be no recovery at all in this case.

In In re Wiring Devices Antitrust Litigation, MDL Docket No. 331 (E.D.N.Y. Sept. 9, 1980), where the firm was again Lead Counsel, Chief Judge Jack B. Weinstein stated:

Counsel for the plaintiffs I think did an excellent job They are outstanding and skillful. The litigation was and is extremely complex. They assumed a great deal of responsibility. They recovered a very large amount given the possibility of no recovery here which was in my opinion substantial.

Over the past several years, Pomerantz' Antitrust Group has spearheaded an effort to challenge anticompetitive conduct by pharmaceutical companies designed to artificially inflate the price of brand name prescription drugs and keep generic versions of the drug from entering into the marketplace. Pomerantz' attorneys in the Antitrust Group also bring additional education and experience specifically beneficial to pharmaceutical antitrust litigation, including backgrounds in nursing, economics and graduate work in health care administration. Pomerantz is currently serving as Interim Co-Lead Counsel in multiple pharmaceutical antitrust cases.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE LITIGATION

Pomerantz has an expert class action corporate governance litigation team, led by Gustavo F. Bruckner. Recently, Mr. Bruckner was co-lead counsel in the matter of In re Great Wolf Resorts, Inc. Shareholders Litigation, No. C.A. 7328-VCN (Del. Ch. 2012), where the Firm obtained the elimination of stand-still provisions that allowed third parties to bid for Great Wolf Resorts, Inc., resulting in the emergence of a third-party bidder and approximately $94 million (57%) in additional merger consideration for Great Wolf shareholders.

In Hallandale Beach Police Officers and Firefighters' Personnel Retirement Fund vs. lululemon athletica, Inc., Civil Action No. 8522-VCP, in an issue of first impression in Delaware, the Chancery Court ordered the production of lululemon athletica inc.'s chairman's 10b5-1 stock trading plan. Pomerantz, on behalf of a lululemon shareholder, brought an action seeking inspection of the company's books and records in order to investigate possible insider trading by the company's chairman. The Court found that a stock trading plan established by the company's chairman, pursuant to which a broker, rather than the chairman himself, would liquidate a portion of the chairman's stock in the company, did not preclude potential liability for insider trading. Accordingly, the Court ordered inspection of books and records, including the 10b5-1 stock trading plan as supported by a credible basis for inferring wrongdoing. This ruling represented an important victory for shareholders of public companies, holding that the mere existence of a 10b5-1 trading plan will not serve as an absolute defense for corporate insiders and will not preclude a finding of a credible basis for an inference of wrongdoing.

In the recent settlement hearing argued by Mr. Bruckner in In re JDA Software Group, Inc., Stockholder Litigation, C.A. No. 8049-VCN, Vice Chancellor John W. Noble stated "The standing and ability of counsel cannot be questioned. They are experienced and know how to handle these types of cases."

PARTNERS

MARC I. GROSS

Marc I. Gross is Managing Partner of Pomerantz. For over three decades, Mr. Gross has focused on securities fraud class actions and derivative actions, while also litigating antitrust and consumer cases. Mr. Gross heads the Firm's Institutional Investor Practice and New Case Groups and is Lead Counsel in many of the Firm's major pending cases.

Mr. Gross' numerous notable achievements include: In re BP plc Sec. Litig. (individual and institutional investors have a right to sue under common law for purchases abroad); In re Comverse Inc. Sec. Litig. ($225 million settlement, including a $60 million contribution by the former CEO); In re Charter Communications Inc. Sec. Litig. ($146.25 million settlement); In re Salomon Analyst AT&T Litig. ($74.75 million settlement); In re Elan Corp. Sec. Litig. ($75 million settlement); and Snyder v. Nationwide Insurance Co. (derivative settlement valued at $100 million). His role in high-profile cases has garnered international media attention. Mr. Gross has been interviewed on the CBS Evening News, the BBC, and numerous Israeli media sources. In 2012 and 2013, Benchmark Litigation named Mr. Gross a "Local Litigation Star" in New York. He has been selected by his peers as a Super Lawyer six times, most recently in 2014.

Mr. Gross leads the Firm's ground-breaking litigations against BP. In the wake of Morrison, they developed an innovative legal strategy using common law as a viable path to recovery for BP common stockholders – in the U.S. federal court system. In a landmark 97-page decision publicly issued on October 10, 2013, the Honorable Keith Ellison of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas denied defendants' motion to dismiss Pomerantz's robust complaint filed on behalf of three U.S. pension funds that had purchased BP ordinary shares and ADS. Judge Ellison rejected defendants' arguments that the case should be sent to courts in England, and his decision to apply English law here negated the need to address defendants' arguments that the case should be dismissed under Morrison and the Dormant Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution. Pomerantz's clients can now proceed to discovery on their U.S. federal securities claims and their English law claims of deceit (fraud) and negligent misrepresentation.

Mr. Gross has extensive trial experience, including In re Zila Inc. Securities Litig. (D.C. Ariz. (PHX)) and In re Zenith Labs Securities Litig. (D.C. N.J.) Courts have consistently praised his lawyering. In approving the $225 million settlement in Comverse, Judge Garaufis stated, "Throughout this litigation, [the Court] has been impressed by Lead Counsel's acumen and diligence. The briefing has been thorough, clear, and convincing."

At the January 30, 2012 hearing wherein the Court approved the settlement of In re Chesapeake Shareholder Derivative Litig., (whereby plaintiffs clawed back $13 million in excess compensation paid to CEO Aubrey McClendon) Judge Owens of the District Court of Oklahoma stated, "Counsel, it's a pleasure, and I mean this and rarely say it. I think I've said it two times in 25 years. It is an extreme pleasure to deal with counsel of such caliber."

Approving the $100 million settlement in Snyder, where Mr. Gross was the lead Pomerantz lawyer, the court stated: "I think you all did a very, very good job for all the people. You made attorneys look good.” Mr. Gross was also the attorney-in-charge of Texas Int’l Co. Sec. Litig. (W.D. Okla.), where, in granting class certification, the Court stated: “The performance of plaintiffs’ counsel thus far leaves the Court with no doubt that plaintiffs’ claims will be vigorously and satisfactorily prosecuted throughout the course of this litigation.” In the course of approving the subsequent settlement of the case, the Court added:

I would like to compliment all the parties and attorneys in this case. . . . You have all worked together better than I think any case I’ve had that involved these extensive issues and parties and potential problems. And I for one appreciate it. And I think it shows certainly a great deal of professionalism on all your part.

Mr. Gross has been a member of the New York City Bar Association’s Federal Courts Committee, an early neutral evaluator for the Eastern District of New York, and a mediator for the Commercial Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. He is currently a Vice President of the Institute of Law and Economic Policy (“ILEP”), a not-for-profit organization devoted to promoting academic research and dialogue in securities law issues and litigation, and for many years was an officer of the National Association of Shareholder and Consumer Attorneys (“NASCAT”).

Mr. Gross speaks frequently at legal forums on shareholder-related issues. He recently moderated a panel at the Loyola University Chicago School of Law’s Institute for Investor Protection Conference on “Litigating the New Evidentiary Burdens: At the Class Certification Stage and Beyond.” In 2013, he spoke at the National Conference on Public Employee Retirement Systems’ (“NCPERS”) Legislative Conference on “Morrison and Recoveries of Damages Arising From Fraudulent Foreign Investments,” and at Loyola University Chicago School of Law’s Institute for Investor Protection Conference on “The Effective and Ethical Use of Confidential Witnesses.” In October 2012, he moderated a panel at the Second Annual Institute for Investor Protection Conference at the Loyola University Chicago School of Law, on “Behavioral Economics Applied: Expert Witnesses, Event Studies, Loss Causation, and Damages Calculation.” Among the panelists was Daniel R. Fischel, whose seminal article describing the application of financial economics to securities fraud litigation was a basis for the Supreme Court’s decision in Basic v. Levinson adopting “fraud on the market.” In 2011 he organized a conference on Proxy Access California; and chaired a panel on Pleading and other Pre-Trial requirements impacting class action suits at the annual ILEP conference; and spoke on Morrison and on Opportunities under Dodd-Frank for Say On Pay and Say on Contributions at the National Summit on the Future of Fiduciary Responsibility, organized by the American Conference Institute with responsible-investor.com.

Mr. Gross is valued by foreign investors for his expertise in the relevance to them of securities class actions in the United States, and how they might benefit from participation. In 2012, Mr. Gross spoke at the Tel Aviv Institutional Investors Forum on “Israel’s Pyramids/Corporate Governance Lessons from the U.S.” and in 2011, participated in a panel at the National Association of Pension Funds Conference in Edinburgh regarding the impact of U.S. class actions on U.K. investors.

Mr. Gross recently authored “Class Certification in a Post-Halliburton II World,” published in Law360 on July 21, 2014. He is the author of the article “Loser-Pays - or Whose ‘Fault’ Is It Anyway: A Response to Hensler-Rowe’s “Beyond ‘It Just Ain’t Worth It,’” which appeared in 64 Law & Contemporary Problems (Duke Law School) (2001). He recently authored “Class Certification in a Post-Halliburton II World,” published in Law360 on July 21, 2014.

Mr. Gross graduated from New York University Law School in 1976, and received his undergraduate degree from Columbia University in 1973.

PATRICK V. DAHLSTROM

Patrick Dahlstrom joined Pomerantz as an associate in the Fall of 1991 and became a partner in January 1996. He is a senior partner and the resident partner in the Firm’s Chicago office. In 2012 and 2013, Benchmark Litigation named Mr. Dahlstrom a “Local Litigation Star” in Chicago.

Mr. Dahlstrom is a member of the Firm’s Institutional Investor Practice and New Case Groups, and has extensive experience litigating cases under the PSLRA. He was partner-in-charge of In re Comverse Technology Sec. Litig., No. 06-CV-1825 (E.D.N.Y.), in which the Firm, as Lead Counsel, recovered a $225 million settlement for the Class – the second-highest ever for a case involving the back-dating options, and one of the largest recoveries ever from an individual officer-defendant, the company’s founder and former CEO. In Comverse, the Firm obtained an important clarification of how courts calculate the “largest financial interest” in connection with the selection of a Lead Plaintiff, in a manner consistent with Dura, 544 U.S. 336 (2005). Judge Garaufis, in approving the settlement, lauded Pomerantz: “The court also notes that, throughout this litigation, it has been impressed by Lead Counsel’s acumen and diligence. The briefing has been thorough, clear, and convincing, and . . . Lead Counsel has not taken short cuts or relaxed its efforts at any stage of the litigation.”

In DeMarco v. Robertson Stephens, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS (S.D.N.Y. 2005), Mr. Dahlstrom obtained the first class certification in a federal securities case involving fraud by analysts.

Mr. Dahlstrom’s extensive experience in litigation under the PSLRA has made him an expert not only at making compelling arguments on behalf of Pomerantz’ clients for Lead Plaintiff status, but also in discerning weaknesses of competing candidates. In re American Italian Pasta Co. Sec. Litig. and Comverse are the most recent examples of his success in getting our clients appointed sole Lead Plaintiff despite competing motions by numerous impressive institutional clients.

Mr. Dahlstrom was a member of the trial team in In re ICN/Viratek Sec. Litig. (S.D.N.Y.), which, after trial, settled for $14.5 million. Judge Wood praised the trial team: “[P]laintiffs counsel did a superb job here on behalf of the class . . . This was a very hard fought case. You had very able, superb opponents, and they put you to your task . . . The trial work was beautifully done and I believe very efficiently done.”

Mr. Dahlstrom’s speaking engagements include interviews by NBC and the CBC regarding securities class actions, and among others, a presentation at the November 2009 State Association of County Retirement Systems Fall Conference as the featured speaker at the Board Chair/Vice Chair Session entitled: “Cleaning Up After the 100 Year Storm. How trustees can protect assets and recover losses following the burst of the housing and financial bubbles.”

Mr. Dahlstrom is a 1987 graduate of the Washington College of Law at American University in Washington, D.C., where he was a Dean’s Fellow, Editor in Chief of the Administrative Law Journal, a member of the Moot Court Board representing Washington College of Law in the New York County Bar Association's Antitrust Moot Court Competition, and a member of the Vietnam Veterans of America Legal Services/Public Interest Law Clinic. Upon graduating, Mr. Dahlstrom served as the Pro Se Staff Attorney for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York and was a law clerk to the Honorable Joan M. Azrack, United States Magistrate Judge.

Mr. Dahlstrom is admitted to practice in New York and Illinois, as well as the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, Northern District of Illinois, Northern District of Indiana, Eastern District of Wisconsin, District of Colorado, Western District of Pennsylvania, the United States Courts of Appeals for the Fourth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Circuits, and the United States Supreme Court.

JEREMY A. LIEBERMAN

Jeremy A. Lieberman became associated with the Firm in August 2004, and became a partner in January 2010. Mr. Lieberman serves on the Firm's Management Committee. At Pomerantz, Mr. Lieberman specializes in securities litigation. He has had an active role in a number of high-profile securities class and derivative actions, including Comverse Technology Sec. Litig., in which he and his partners achieved a historic $225 million settlement on behalf of the Class, which was the second-largest options backdating settlement to date. Currently, Mr. Lieberman serves as Lead Counsel in In re Petrobras Sec. Litig., a case involving a multi-billion dollar kickback and bribery scheme involving Brazil's largest oil company, Petróleo Brasileiro S.A.- Petrobras.

Mr. Lieberman was lead counsel in In re Medicis Corp. Sec. Litig., in which the Court recently approved an $18 million settlement, and is lead counsel in In re China North East Petroleum Corp. Sec. Litig., and In re Columbia Laboratories, Inc. Sec. Litig., and co-lead counsel in In re Mellanox Technologies, Ltd. Sec. Litig. and In re Linn Energy LLC Sec. Litig.

In In re China North East Petroleum Corp. Sec. Litig., Mr. Lieberman achieved a significant victory for shareholders in the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, whereby the Appeals Court ruled that a temporary rise in share price above its purchase price in the aftermath of a corrective disclosure did not eviscerate an investor's claim for damages. The Second Circuit's decision was deemed "precedential" by the New York Law Journal, and provides critical guidance for assessing damages in a § 10(b) action.

Mr. Lieberman currently serves as Interim Class Counsel on behalf of a class lenders and financial institutions litigating claims arising out of the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") rate rigging scandal.

Mr. Lieberman regularly consults with Pomerantz's international institutional clients, including pension funds, regarding their rights under the U.S. securities laws. Mr. Lieberman is working with the firm's international clients to craft a response to the Supreme Court's ruling in Morrison v. Nat'l Australia Bank, Ltd., which limited the ability of foreign investors to seek redress under the federal securities laws. Currently, Mr. Lieberman is representing several UK and EU pension funds and asset managers in individual actions against BP plc in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

Mr. Lieberman is a frequent lecturer regarding current corporate governance and securities litigation issues.
